BUTCHER

Eli Baxter Butcher, a son of Eli and Margaret (Hart) Butcher, was born February 1, 1826 and died in Randolph County VA (WV) March 25. 1862. Eli married Elizabeth Hutton in Randolph County October 28, 1852. Elizabeth, a daughter of Moses and Mary (Haigler) Hutton, was born in Randolph County July 23, 1836.

About the time he was married, he bought out his father and became a very prosperous merchant and a popular man of high standing. He was apparently involved in Confederate activities, culminating in his death and the destruction of his property by Federal forces. Miller and Maxwell's "The History of West Virginia and Her People" says, "The war between the states resulted in the loss of his store and a large amount of property, as well as the destruction by fire, after his death, of his large and valuable buildings, including his dwelling house, store, barns etc., by order of a Federal officer, setting the widow and her four infant children in the public road.
